

EUROPEAN MEDICINES AGENCY
SCIENCE MEDICINES HEALTH

New ENCePP Steering Group (SG) for the term 2024-26

ENCEPP Plenary meeting – 1 December 2023

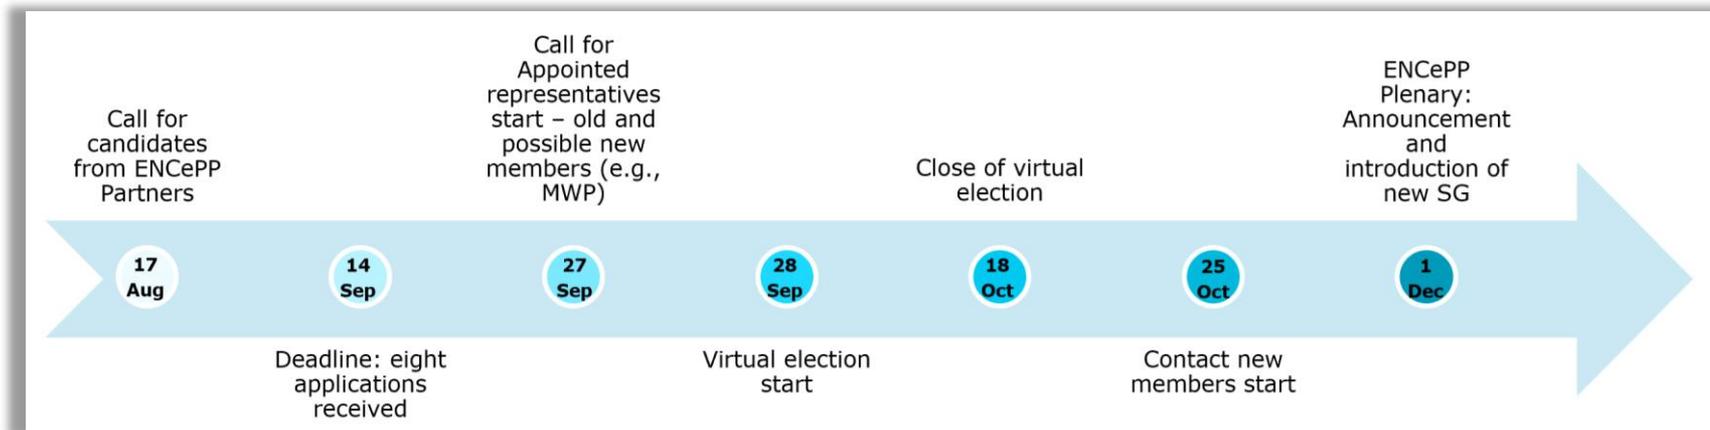

Susana Perez-Gutthann, RTI Health Solutions, ENCePP SG co-chair

An agency of the European Union

Background and process

- ENCePP Steering Group election every 3 years, next term: 2024-2026
- SG composition: elected members from ENCePP Partners & appointed representatives
- Election process: all ENCePP partners eligible to vote (1 per centre) via EU Survey tool

Candidates – Thank you for running

(Alphabetical order)

1. Alejandro Arana	RTI Health Solutions (Spain)
2. Annalisa Landi	TEDDY European Network of Excellence for Paediatric Clinical Research (Italy)
3. Christos Kontogiorgis	Democritus University of Thrace, Greece, Laboratory of Hygiene and Environmental Protection (Greece)
4. Helga Gardarsdottir	Utrecht Institute for Pharmaceutical Sciences (Netherlands)
5. Lisette Hoogendoorn	IQVIA Real World Solutions (Netherlands)
6. Marco Tuccori	University hospital of Pisa, Unit of adverse drug reactions monitoring (UADRM) (Italy)
7. Martin Daumer	The Human Motion Institute (Germany)
8. Vera Ehrenstein	Aarhus University, Dept of Clinical Epidemiology (Denmark)

Newly elected members - Congratulations

(Alphabetical order)

1. Alejandro Arana

•RTI Health Solutions (Spain)

2. Annalisa Landi

•TEDDY European Network of Excellence for Paediatric Clinical Research (Italy)

3. Christos Kontogiorgis

•Democritus University of Thrace, Greece, Laboratory of Hygiene and Environmental Protection (Greece)

4. Helga Gardarsdottir

•Utrecht Institute for Pharmaceutical Sciences (Netherlands)

5. Marco Tuccori

•University hospital of Pisa, Unit of adverse drug reactions monitoring (UADRM) (Italy)

6. Vera Ehrenstein

•Aarhus University, Dept of Clinical Epidemiology (Denmark)

Near future

- Appointed representatives list will be finalised beginning of 2024
- First meeting of the new SG in Q1 2024